

Privacy policy

As part of providing a health resource and support service, The Autoimmune Resource and Research Centre (trading as Autoimmune Resource and Research Centre Inc.) may collect your name, address, date of birth, information about your illnesses, symptoms, and management to aid staff in providing you with the most appropriate information and health service .

We usually collect personal information directly from you when you contact us through our telephone service, website, via written correspondence or completion of an online form, and when you register for an Autoimmune Resource and Research Centre research project, seminar, workshop or event. In addition, your contact details may be disclosed to us via a support referral from one of your medical management team including your General Practitioner, Specialist Medical Practitioner and or any of your allied health support managers.

We collect, and use your personal information for the purpose of communicating with you, providing our services and conducting our business. Information gathered may be used in a de-identified form within the production of service delivery reports for development of service delivery programs, resource grants, service evaluation and improvements. In addition de-identified data may be required for completion of reports for legislative requirements of Commonwealth, State or Territory departments.

The Autoimmune Resource and Research Centre will disclose your personal identifiable information to any third party in Australia or elsewhere without your prior written permission.

If you would like to discuss The Autoimmune Resource and Research Centre privacy policy further, require further information, or would like to make a complaint about the handling of your personal information please contact ARRC at:

Email: arrc@hnehealth.nsw.gov.au

Phone: (02) 49214095

Facsimile: (02) 49855347

Postal address:

Executive Officer
Autoimmune Resource and Research Centre
2nd Flr, HAPS bld, John Hunter Hospital
New Lambton Heights, NSW 2305

Last reviewed: April 2015

